Theme of the Year: Passing The Baton

St Peter's
&
St Luke's

30 June 2019

Ordinary Sunday 13

Jesus had every reason not to trust Simon Peter. He was impetuous, he was likely to act before he thought, and he was often letting Jesus down. Indeed on the eve of Jesus' death, he went so far as to deny Jesus 3 times. What makes this even more terrible is that Peter had promised to never forsake him.

How would you respond to Simon's flakiness. We can see Jesus' response in today's Gospel. He gives him a new name which means rock. The complete opposite of what he was and he gives the keys of the kingdom.

This passage gives me great hope. To be honest, there are times when despite having promised to always follow Jesus, I let him down. And yet he still trusts me. I would have given up on me years ago. Jesus not only trusts me, but he also partners with me, in ministry and in life.

Like me; you may have had times when you haven't been rock solid for Jesus. You may have let him and yourself down. The good news, the news of grace is that Jesus still works with us. He still entrusts us with the kingdom, like Simon he gives us a new name which means; "I can rely on you."

If Jesus had been wrong in his trust of Peter, we wouldn't be here celebrating our patronal festival. But here we are, on the other side of the world, 2,000 years later. Jesus is still in the business of empowering and trusting us, and giving us the keys to abundant life. That's what we celebrate, that's why we gather.
