The Great Physician

Driving home one night the doctor saw an injured puppy lying on the road. She couldn't just leave it there, so she picked it up and took it home. It had no collar and she quickly discovered a broken leg. Over the next couple of weeks she nursed it back to health. By setting the leg the dog was soon walking again. She grew very close to her little friend. Then one day on returning home she couldn't find the dog. Sadly, over the next few weeks she looked in vain for her puppy friend. Then one night while eating tea she heard a scratching at the garage door. She got up and outside she discovered not just the dog she had nursed to health but several other dogs as well. You see the puppy had brought them for healing too.

In a few weeks St Peter's and St Luke's are having a "bring a friend sunday." (November 10 at St Peters, 17 at St Lukes) The two 9:30 services will be geared for the guests we bring and also a yummy morning tea. (this is really just for the vicar!) Invitations will be blessed and given out, with an opportunity to approach a friend or family member who might like to come with you to church on that day. But why bother? Isn't church just for us?

We want to bring a friend to church because we are like that little puppy. In Jesus we have found hope, peace, love and healing. We can't keep it to ourselves we want to bring the other dogs, I mean people to the source of our healing too.

News in the Parish

PLANT SALE!

Saturday, 19th October

Please see insert for details on getting ready for our Plant Sale.

- Jill

Missing Stole

My green stole, the long piece of fabric which goes around a priest's neck and is symbolic of the towel and yoke of Christ is missing. It was made for my Father by the Sisters at the Community. Have you seen it? I hope it's not a stolen stole!

~Nick

Family Church

As you are all aware, every 4th Sunday, at 11am, a family service is held in the Bowden Hall. This service caters for young families in our community who might prefer a less formal setting, and is led by our very able family orchestra.

It is a great experience for those new to faith and those seeking a spiritual home. Please feel encouraged to bring friends and family to our family service - we look forward to journeying with them as they explore God's kingdom here on earth!

From the Restoration Fundraising Committee

We so appreciated the contribution of all those who provided and supported our Indian meal last Sunday, approximately $1200 more to the restoration. Everyone seemed to thoroughly enjoy the butter chicken and of course the entertainment that went with it. Another High Tea with a Christmas performance from Keeping Good Company is something to look forward to - Sunday December 1st. Then our Christmas Quiz Night on Friday 6th, it's not too early to be thinking about your team members. By that time tickets for our monster Christmas Raffle will be on sale - can you donate an item or two to swell the prize pool? Thanks.

- David Winfield

Parish Prayer Group

A small group of parishioners have gathered, wanting to pray over the parish and diocese, together with other current issues. I will email out a weekly list of needs to the group who will hold the issues in prayer for that week. If you have any particular needs, let me know.
