

Welcome

HELLO

Kia Ora

to the Anglican Parish of Upper Riccarton-Yaldhurst

St Peter's
&
St Luke's

12 September 2021
Ordinary Sunday

In the movie "Terminal" Tom Hanks stars as a man who has lost his identity. His country has had a revolution and he can't return home. Because his country doesn't exist he can't leave the airport, so he starts to make a life for himself living at the airport.

Jesus is encouraging the disciples to acknowledge his identity in today's Gospel. After a lot of prompting Peter names Jesus as the Messiah, but then doesn't get the implications.

When we have the courage to name Jesus for who he is in our lives, then we discover our identity too. We discover that we are the beloved of God. Loved and cherished by God we are no longer stuck, like Tom Hanks at the airport but can move out with good news for all the world.

Stay safe.

Nick

News in the Parish

COVID 19 Vaccination

Reminder that people aged over 60 or with underlying health conditions can now book their vaccine. You can either book using email:

booking@vaccine.covid19.health.nz or ring 0800 282926. If you would like some assistance with booking your appointment or need someone to drive you to your appointment, please do let the office know as we have several people who are willing to help.

Plant Sale: 9th October

We are hoping that we will be able to continue with this as many people have been busy growing and lovingly nurturing plants. We urgently need people to help with growing vegetable plants as there are only five weeks to go. We have the soil, planting trays, seeds and some handy tips available. We are able to deliver these since we will not be worshipping physically this weekend. Call or text Fiona on 0273453478 and we will arrange a drop off. Alternatively, if you have spare soil, seed and containers, already just use these. Any help would be greatly appreciated. It was such a great success last year and will probably be well received again this year as we hopefully move out of alert levels.
~Fiona

Email Changes

As you may have noticed we are changing our email addresses to avoid people having to use their personnel email addresses. This complies with new Privacy regulations but also means that when personal changes, neither does the email. They all have the same ending which is the same that we use for our church emails: stpeter@world-net.co.nz - only the beginning is different for each one. The beginning starts with the position that the person has in the Parish. For example, Nick's email is now vicar.stpeter@world-net.co.nz. Please find below a list of emails and the people who currently hold that title. Meanwhile, the general one (stpeter@world-net.co.nz) stays for the admin office.
