We Will Walk This Journey Together

About 10 years ago I was approached by a few younger people. "Would you be willing to be our mentor?" I admit, I was shocked. Mentors, I thought, are much older. Plus, mentors are filled with the wisdom of long life. I was still trying to figure things out. However, I asked, "Why are you asking me?" "We see how you're living your life," they said, "and we think you could help us. We're hoping you might spend some time talking with us about work and faith." As they spoke, I thought to myself, "Well, I could do that. They don't think I'm some kind of brilliant wise woman. They see me as someone a little farther down the road than they are. I'd be happy to walk along with them for a while."

Spiritual formation is like that too, it happens through participation and practice of a community's way of life. It is active, holistic, authentic, healthy, life-giving and hope-filled. When we journey together, talking about our lives, we learn from being with God. As I walk with others on this road, I learned as much or more than I passed on to them. It just feels right to me.

News in the Parish

Growing in Faith - Day by day

Day by day, Oh Dear Lord, three things I pray.

To see you more clearly, Love you more dearly, Follow you more nearly
Day by day (adapted lyrics from "Godspell" soundtrack)

* Following the wonderful gatherings that happened over Lent, Peg will be facilitating a group, who wish to know God. We will also learn a bit about God.

This group is open to all who are on a journey of faith, (from ages 11 - 103!) We will meet on the 1st and 3rd Sunday of each month, in the Atrium, from 11:15am - 12:30pm.

SHE'S COMING BACK Since her previous visit to the parish, Stephanie Hersh has been sailing the high seas teaching and entertaining cruise liner passengers with her exceptional culinary skills. We'll save you the cost of a trip and bring her here on the evening of Tuesday 18th April for a demonstration and tasting along with further anecdotes from her time abroad and as PA to the inimitable Julia Child. Your ticket ($30) will also include refreshments, raffles, and the opportunity to join an auction to win a personal visit to your home for a hands-on session for up to 6 people, followed by the meal created. Tickets will be available soon but you can reserve yours now by putting your name on the list at the back of church and in the Atrium.

This week our Easter focus has changed to the cross. Our children have been practicing their scissor skills as they cut around cross shapes to decorate. The younger children in the Koru Room are in the process of making a papier mache tomb.

We are practising our 'Dave the Donkey' drama as we prepare for Sunday's Palm Sunday service at St Peter's. You are warmly invited to join in our preschool Easter celebration after the service and morning tea with parishioners in the Atrium. After morning tea we head to preschool for some fun Easter themed games and a shared lunch together.
